

uous, fermented or intoxicating liquors, beer, ale, porter, wine or fermented beverage or liquor of any kind having a greater percentage of alcohol by volume than one-half of one per cent for beverage purposes at any place in Baltimore County where the sale of any such beer or liquors is not now authorized by existing law.

434. The druggists and apothecaries shall not be required to obtain license under the provisions of this sub-title, but they shall not sell spirituous, fermented or intoxicating liquors nor any beer, ale, porter, wine or fermented beverage having a greater percentage of alcohol by volume than one-half of one per cent for beverage purposes except on the written prescription of a regular physician, nor more than once in any one prescription of the physician, and every druggist or apothecary shall keep a book for the special purpose and enter therein the date of every sale of any such beer or liquors made by him, the person to whom sold, the kind, quantity and price thereof, and the purpose for which it was sold; and any failure to comply with the provisions of this section, or to produce the book before any court of justice when so required to do, shall render such druggist or apothecary so failing liable to the same penalties as if he had sold such beer or liquors without a license; and any physician who shall wilfully prescribe any such beer or liquors as a beverage to persons of known intemperate habits shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be subject to the same penalties.

435. It shall not be lawful for any club, association or corporation located in Baltimore County heretofore formed or hereafter to be formed under the General Laws of this State, or under any special law thereof, to give, barter or sell any spirituous fermented or intoxicating liquors nor any beer, ale, porter or fermented beverage having a greater percentage of alcohol by volume than one-half of one per cent for beverage purposes to any member of said club, association or corporation, or to any other person, without having first taken out a retail license under the provisions of this sub-title, and the application of any such club, association or corporation for such license shall be made by the steward or any other officer of said club, association or corporation in substantial compliance with the provisions of Sections 413 and 414 of this Article, and notice of such application shall
